

La Réunion Aérienne licenses Prima IBCS™ and Prima Repository™ to serve as the foundation for its multi-year IT transformation initiative.

PARIS – January 16th, 2008 – Prima Solutions, provider of Prima IBCS™, the leading insurance object model and Prima Repository™, the only insurance-dedicated SOA platform, announced today that La Réunion Aérienne has chosen its software foundation to jump start its multi-year IT transformation initiative.

Michel Beauchesne, La Réunion Aérienne's Chief Executive Officer, said: "we needed a solid software foundation to serve as the backbone of our IT Transformation initiative; Prima IBCS™ and Prima Repository™ are proven products, which will help us jump start this very strategic project".

He added: "Our specialty insurance business is experiencing a number of very significant changes. Our company needs to adapt quickly. We have selected Prima Solutions' tools and expertise to help us build a brand new information system, which will radically transform the way our company operates".

"We are delighted to add La Réunion Aérienne to our portfolio of customers", adds Hugues Delannoy, CEO of Prima Solutions. "La Réunion Aérienne's decision illustrates the growing level of adoption of Prima Solutions' SOA software framework and expertise by insurance stakeholders who embark upon strategic transformation projects."
